CONTRALTO IN ARTISTS' TRIO

Carolina Lassari.

Reservations of seats for the first musical event of the season, the concert by the Artist Trio, to be sponsored by the Tri-city Musical association, Oct. 19, will start next Monday morning, Oct. 11. Seats can be secured at the Cable Music House in Rock Island, at the Tri-city Piano company in Moline and at Schmidt Music House in Davenport. The concert will be given in Augustana college gymnasium. The trio is composed of Carolina Lassari, contralto; Grace Wagner, soprano, and Renato Zanelli, tenor, the remarkable contralto and Zanelli sang in concert here last winter with the Metropolitan quartet, and they need no introduction to local admirers. Miss Wagner, the soprano, is comparatively new, but her reputation as an artist is known here. She is the niece of Charles L. Wagner, manager of McCormack, Lazari and others. Her brilliant career has virtually just begun, but already she holds a place among the lists of capable artists. She made her debut in 1919 as Marguerite in "Faust" with the Society of American Singers in New York. She is the possessor of a voice full of sweetness and purity, and evenly developed. It has an unusual sympathetic quality which alone could win her success. The trio is accompanied by Frank LaForge, the well known composer-pianist, who will also give solo numbers.

The association completed concert plans at the first meeting of the board of the season held yesterday morning.

Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Paron was left with many lovely gifts as mementoes of the occasion.
